

The University of Genoa – Department of Political Science

in collaboration with the Genoa Model United Nations Committee holds its second

University GeMUN Roundtable on

GLOBAL GOVERNANCE AND COOPERATION: OLD RULES, NEW PROBLEMS, AND THE PATH THAT LIES AHEAD

Chair Laura CARPANETO, Univ. of Genoa, Professor in International Law, and in Law of International Organizations

---

Governance of International Trade: Between Multilateralism and the New Generation Trade and Investment Agreements

Avv., PhD., Ad. Prof. Chiara CELLERINO
LLM (Columbia), LUMSA and University of Genoa

Climate Change and COP 23: International Cooperation Efforts in the Paris Agreement
Dott. Giovanni SCIACCALUGA, University
of Genoa

The Future of Internet Governance and the Path from Unilateralism to Cooperation

Avv., PhD., Ad. Prof. Simone CARREA,
Univ. of Genoa

International Cooperation and Immunities of International Organizations: The Haiti Case before US Courts

Dott. Francesca MAOLI, University of Genoa

The Action of the European Union in the Fight Against Maritime Piracy: Successes and Issues

PhD., Ad. Prof., Researcher Stefano
DOMINELLI, University of Milan, DILHPS

Debate

The Big Data Revolution and International Law

Closure of works

Avv., PhD., Ad. Prof. Luca CALZOLARI LLM
(Aberdeen), University of Turin

---

Department of Political Science
21st February 2018- 16.30
Palazzo Ducale, Sala Informagiovani